Correspondence

Lyda (Bunnell) Cloud, CloChrl@aol.com or 35824 S. Case Road, Inola, OK 74036-5512, wrote of a May 2008 meeting with one of her distant cousins, who happens to be my first cousin.

"Cousin, Max Bunnell, Granger Bunnell's son of Claremore, OK called me at 1:00 and told me Jack and Mark Corson were part of the Steam and gas engine show of Pawnee, Ok. So we gathered ourselves and I pulled up directions and headed for Pawnee, Oklahoma.

There we viewed steam engines and John Deer tractors of way back when, met Jack, his wife and two sons and we are certainly glad that we went. He, Jack, was elated to know a 6th or 7th cousin came to visit him out of the blue.

He had met Max Bunnell several years ago and had hoped to meet me, the girl cousin from Oklahoma. I charmed the heck out of him with my b-s(that means Bunnell stuff).

I suggested if I knew 3 month in advance I could send Bunnell [Newsletter] a picture of the steam engine he shows and maybe someone of the newsletter might be interested in taking some sort of a trip and especially if they knew his mother was Leona Angie Bunnell. As quiet as [husband] Charlie is he certainly enjoyed himself. A niece of Jack is connected to the Ward Clan and when he heard that Charlie was Cherokee and Ward connections, he got really interested."

[Ed. Note: Jack's mother, Leona Angie (Bunnell) Corson, is 350120 in Claude's database. She was my father's sister. Jack's line is:

Lyda is 360045 in Claude's database. Her line is:

Donald H. Bunnell, dbunnell@verizon.net or 278 Red Poppy Trail, Georgetown, TX 78628-4587, wrote to say that thanks for the Newsletter and to let us know that he and his brother in Savannah became members of the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR) in the Bunnell Line from Titus Bunnell, 300052 in Claude's database.

[Ed. Note: I found an Ensign Titus Bunnell of Farmington in the First Company 2nd Battalion, Wadsworth's Brigade. Titus Bunnell is also found in the DAR Rolls of Honor, Volume 6, page 136. I found that in an index and have not looked up the reference. I assume these are both the same Titus that Donald is referring to.]

Queries

On one of my websites I have a picture of a cousin, Julia Lavorn (Bunnell) Beebe (351587 in Claude's database). As a result, Heather Muncie, prynsesheather@yahoo.com or 15500 Tustin Village Way #14, Tustin, CA 92780, sent the following query:

"I was wondering if you could help me out. I came across your site when I was searching for my mom's birthmother. The picture of Julia looks a lot like my mom. The name on her birth certificate was "Baby Girl Bunnell". I am unsure if it is the father's or mother's last name. She was born in Oct. 1949 in Inglewood, CA. My grandmother has told her that her parents were from the east coast and that the mother was young. It may have been a private adoption. Any information you can find or send me would be great."

I responded: "I can't find any material in my records to help you out. Julia Lavorn Bunnell was born and lived in Tioga County, NY. In fact she spent her life on Wilson Creek Road. Now, her children would have been Beebe, so they wouldn't have been the father or mother of your mom. She had no brothers, only sisters so the Bunnell name did not continue past her parents. I'm afraid that doesn't help much. Now, if there was a male Bunnell who had a chance encounter with the woman who would be your grandmother, that will be much harder to trace." And I offered to publish her letter in the newsletter.

So, if anyone has info that may help Heather, please contact her and I'd love to hear about it also.

Myrtle W. Carlson, P.O. Box 72, Montrose, PA 18801, is seeking information on Daniel and Miles Bunnell possible service in the Revolutionary War. The Daniel she speaks of is 300049 in Claude's database and 1-1-7-1-2 in William Austin's book. Miles is the son of Daniel. William Austin's book contains no reference to either man having served in the Revolution, and with Miles having been born about 1775, his participation is unlikely as he would have been about 8 years old when the war ended. His father certainly could have served, but I have no proof of such service. Miles' brother, Daniel, however did serve but deserted and was refused a pension for his service. Some other Daniels have also been found in various records, but their family connections are unknown:

Daniel Bunnell, 010528, Loyalist who served in the Prince of Wales Reg.

Daniel Bunnell, 014236, was an ensign under Col. Oliver Spencer

Daniel Bonnell, 300136, was a private in Capt Moses Munson's Company in NJ

If you have other information about Daniel or Miles please contact Myrtle Carlson and I'd appreciate it if you could also drop a note or e-mail to me.

Submissions

Julia Dale, jmardale@peoplestelecom.net or 721 Hillside St., La Cygne, KS 66040-6033 sent some photos with commentary as follows:

These 2 portraits came from my aunt Fern's collection.

The one on the left is [Uncle] Frank S. Bonnell, older brother of Albert Bonnell, born at Dover, IA., February 19, 1855. He was the fifth child of James H. & Rachel [Buffington] Bonnell. [Fern writes on the back, "The last one of the family to pass away."] Frank was the father of Claudia Bonnell Jarvis, Mazie Bonnell Logan, Horace U. Bonnell, Carl R. Bonnell, and Frank S. Bonnell, [who became an eye, ear, nose, throat Dr. in Fairfield, IA.]

The photo on the right is William Bonnell, younger brother of James H. Bonnell, was never married, and boarded in the home of James H. & Rachel B., as long as he lived. He died October 30, 1908. All three, Grandmother, Grandfather, and Great Uncle Will are buried in the Hoover Cemetery, a pioneer burying ground, 3 miles east of Dover, IA. Other members of the family are also buried here.

The picture on the left was in Aunt Fern's collection, [buried, of course!] and says:

"George Bonnell, cousin to Albert Bonnell. Lived in Lincoln, Nebr." He was a brother of John C. Bonnell, son of Calvin D. Bonnell. At the bottom of the picture it says, "Townsend's Elite Studio, 226 South U St., Lincoln, Neb." There is no date on the back.

In the previous issue on page 44, we had the death notice and circumstances of Edwin R. Bonnell in 1893, provided by Tim Bonnell, tbonnell@pimi.Com or 306 N. Angela Cr., Wichita, KS 67235-8431. He had been searching for 4 years to find such an obituary. He has written again to say that he found another one, with a slightly different story. "[Attached] is Edwin's obituary from the White Oaks [NM] "The Old Abe Eagle" newspaper which tells a bit more detail of Ed's last days and the fact that he did have an operation in Las Vegas, NM which is contrary to the Larned, KS paper. Apparently Ed's Son, Harvey Lewis Bonnell was living with Ed and Viola at the time and traveled with his dad to Las Vegas for the operation." This edition was dated Oct. 5, 1893. There was both a description of the conditions leading to his demise and an obituary providing some background on Ed. The majority of the material is similar to the previous one so I am printing only a snippet of this newest information.

"... On the 15th of August, accompanied by his son, Harvey, and J. C. Klepinger, Mr. Bonnell was taken to Las Vegas to undergo a surgical operation ... The operation was performed and the patient greatly relieved but the good results anticipated were only temporary and the doctors, realizing that the end was near, advised bringing him home."

Marjorie Gibbs, margibbs@nycap.rr.com or 19 Pepper Lane, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866-5528, wrote:

"While looking over some of my old research data on various family lines, in this case, McNitt, McClure, Brown and Taylor of Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, I find that there is some intermarriage between them and a Bunnell line. I note in [Claude's] data base [it] lacks some dates of 331681 William Cyrus Bunnell son of Usnal, (note spelling in my source) Bunnell. Here's what I have:

Referring to the family of James M. Brown (b. Armagh Twp., Mifflin Co., PA 21 March 1818; d. Beloit, KS 26 April 1896) married 24 January 1844 Elizabeth McManigle, (d. 1869). James Brown m. (2) Mrs. Elizabeth Alexander of Milroy, Mifflin Co., PA.: James Brown and first wife, Elizabeth McManigle had these children: Samuel McClay Brown, m. Maria Sterrett; Frances Martha Brown m. Frank McClure; Sarah Jane Brown, m. William Cyrus Bunnell a native of Crawford County, PA; Mary Elizabeth Brown m. Dr. A. S. Harshberger of Lewistown; Nancy Margaret Brown d. young; James Wilmont Brown, m. Agnes Morse.

"Mr. W. C. Bunnell, son-in-law of Mr. Brown, is a son of Usnal and Harriet (McClure) Bunnell of Crawford county PA. He married Sarah Jane Brown November 11 1868. They have five children: James Brown; Harriet Elizabeth, wife of Dr. W. H. Kohler of Milroy, Mifflin county, one child, Edna Della; Walter Irwin Bunnell and Fanny Cyrus Bunnell."

Biographical Encyclopedia of the Juniata Valley, Vol. I, published by J. M. Runk 1897, p. 663. Fanny Cyrus Bunnell is at the end of p. 663, and I unfortunately did not copy p. 664, so I have no mention of Edna. I have only four children accounted for in my notes. Or maybe the compiler mistakenly counted Harriet and Dr. W. H. Kohler's daughter Edna as a fifth child of W. C. Bunnell.

Grave stones in the Milroy Presbyterian Church Cemetery: (Mifflin County)
father W. Cyrus Bunnell 1838-1918
mother Sarah Brown 1848-1920

On p. 667 of the same source, above: (This gets complicated because these Scotch-Irish families intermarried so frequently the lines get very entangled.) Referring to the family of Thomas and Sarah A. (McDowell) Brown. Thomas Brown was a brother of the above mentioned James Brown.) Thomas and Sarah (McDowell had these children: James, Nancy McClure Brown, Jane E. Brown, and Ann Alexander Brown. Thomas Brown died 4 June 1856. His wife, Sarah, married (2) Jacob Muttersbaugh. He died 26 Sept. 1861. "Mrs. Muttersbaugh returned to the old Brown homestead in Armagh township, where she was living at the time of her third marriage. Her daughter, Ann Alexander Brown, was married January 18, 1865 to John M. Bunnell of Crawford county, PA. For a number of years they lived on the Brown homestead. Mr. Bunnell then opened a music store in Bellefonte, PA, where he remained for a number of years. He sold his business there and opened a music store in Philipsburg, PA, where they are living at the present time (1897). They had five children, all of whom died quite young except Sarah M., who was married January 1, 1890 to Thomas Mayes of Lewistown; they had one child, John Albert Mayes."

I've been aware that I had this information somewhere, but never could find it when I wanted it. I hope this fills out some of your gaps. I have abstracts of Mifflin County Wills from 1789 to 1900, and there are no Bonnell/Bunnell wills listed. I'll keep my eyes out for any more mention of Bonnell/Bunnells I may have.

MIDDLETOWN, N.Y., Aug. 30--Ex-Clerk of the New-Jersey Legislature Thomas G. Bunnell, editor of the Newton (Sussex County) Herald, having been appointed Postmaster of Newton by President Cleveland, has sold his paper to Thomas Kays, a well known Democratic politician of Northern New-Jersey. It is understood that Mr. Bunnell retires from journalism in order to obey to the letter the President's instructions as to obtrusive partisanship on the part of office holders.

Well, I've been on e-bay again and I have another postcard. In the February 2008 issue I had a post card of the "Oak Leaf Hotel" with writing on the back by Mrs. W. T. Bunnell. Thus far we haven't been able to identify the location of the hotel or who W.T. Bunnell is. This time research has provided me with the probable answer to the who of this new postcard, which is labeled at the bottom, "Bunnell Ranch, Mason City, Nebr." It is postmarked March 6, 1915 in Mason City and sent to Harry Bordner, Geneva, Nebr. It was sent by Mrs. Chas. Pearson who is inquiring about the "prices of your eggs in one hundred lots."

The 1900 census for Custer Co, Algernon Township, which is where Mason City is located, shows a Morris B. Bunnell owning a farm free and clear. His family consists of wife Sarah, sons Carlton and Victor, and daughters Gretchen and Norma.

The 1910 census shows three Bunnell families living in Custer County:

C. G. Bunnell, age 27, born in IA, a farmer who rents his farm, and his wife is Britannia;

M. B. Bunnell, age 56, born in PA, a stock dealer working on his Own Accord, owns his house with no mortgage, and his wife is Sarah E.;

Victor L Bunnell, age 22, born in NE, a ranch foreman on his mortgaged farm, and his wife is Daisy A.

Next, I turned to the WWI draft registration cards of 1917 and 1918. M. B. is too old to register for the draft.

C. G. Bunnell: is Carlton Gerard Bunnell and has relocated to Fargo, ND. Since the post card is dated 1915, though we don't really know when the photo was taken, it is improbable that the photo is of C.G. Bunnell's ranch/farm.

Victor Bunnell: The Ancestry.com index shows his name as "Victor Linoel Bumell." I have reported the error to Ancestry.com. Victor's draft card was dated 1917 and he is still at that time a farmer for himself.

On the rootsweb pages for Custer Co., NE:

At <http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~necuster/hmesteds/b-home.html> there is a listing of "Custer County Homesteads & Timber Claims taken from the U.S. General Land Office Tract Books." It shows that Morris Bunnell bought Sect 1, twship 14 range 18 on March 12, 1885 under Patent No. 6--91. (The same list shows two purchases by an Isaac Bummell and one by a Morris Bummell. No Bummells can be found in the census data for that county, so I believe that Isaac Bummell is Isaac Bunnell, father of Morris. And Morris Bummell is our Morris Bunnell.) I am not an expert on the Homesteads so I'm not clear why Morris Bummell and Morris Bunnell appear to have purchased the same piece of property or Morris Bunnell purchased it twice..

At <http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~necuster/cmterys/masoncty.htm#a> is the listing of graves in the Mason City cemetery:

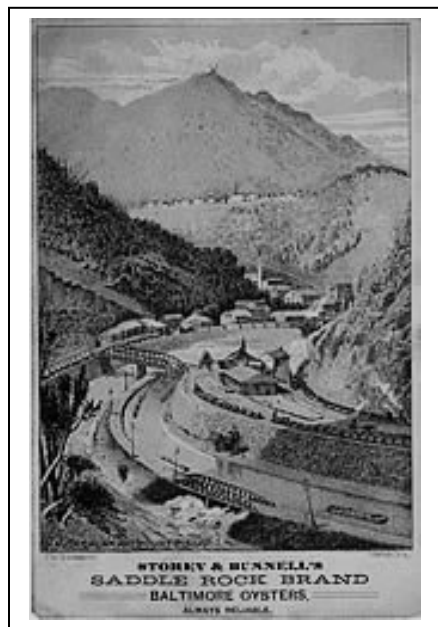

Bunnell, Carlton G., 1882-1919

Bunnell, Amelia A., wife of Isaac Bunnell, born Nov 20, 1816 died Feb 21, 1895,
"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints"

Turning to Claude's database I find that C.G. and Victor are sons of M.B., or Morris B., Bunnell, just as the 1900 census data showed. Morris is 331249 in Claude's database and his lineage is: William<sup>1</sup>, Benjamin<sup>2</sup>, Benjamin<sup>3</sup>, Solomon<sup>4</sup>, Benjamin<sup>5</sup>, Benjamin<sup>6</sup>, Isaac<sup>7</sup>, Morris<sup>8</sup>.

From these sources it appears that Isaac and son Morris purchased land through the Homestead Act. From census data, Victor owned farm land and it may have been purchased from his father or grandfather. Without access to county deeds, I can't make that determination. But, by 1910, the father, Morris B, owns a home, not farm, increasing the possibility that the photo is of Victor's ranch.

Does anyone have any more information to add to this?

I also purchased thru e-bay 2 scenic "Victorian Trading Cards" which appear to have been included with oysters sold by Storey and Bunnell Oyster Packers. One of them is shown to the left. I have since found several other similar cards for sale. Of course, I wanted to know who this Bunnell was.

I used Google to search for "Storey & Bunnell" and found a book of Annual Reports for 1896 for the state of Ohio. In it, was a report of expenditures for Institutions for Feeble-Minded Youth for April 24, 1896 showing that Storey & Bunnell was paid $58 for oysters. So I now had a time frame (late 19th, early 20th centuries) and a geographic area (Baltimore, MD) to search for both Bunnell and Storey.

In the 1880 census there is a Norman H. Storey, age 48, with the occupation of Oyster Packer. He has two sons: Norman Jr, age 4 and J. Edward, age 2. They reside at 321 Light St., Baltimore. He is the only Storey with that occupation.

There is also an L. P. Bunnell, age 39, with the occupation of Oyster Packer. He has one son Lucas M., age 7. They reside at 36 Choptank Street in Baltimore. Their neighbor, David E. Foote is also an oyster packer. But, L.P. is the only Bunnell with the occupation of oyster packer.

The 1900 census for Baltimore, ward 6, 2229 Pratt St., shows Lucas Bunnell, age 59, who lists his occupation as Oyster Packer. His son Lucas, now 27, is still living at home and is a Coal & Wood Dealer. Other Bunnells were listed in Baltimore, but only Lucas lists the correct occupation.

In the 1900 census I was unable to find any Storey with an occupation of Oyster Packer anywhere in Maryland. The two sons of Norman, Norman Jr and Edward, are living in Baltimore. Jr. is an electrician and Edward is a bookkeeper.

In the 1920 census Norman H. Storey, Sr., is not listed. Neither is Lucas P. Bunnell. It is likely the Storey and Bunnell Oyster Company is either out of business or has changed hands.

If someone has access to the Baltimore City Directories for those time periods, they may be able to find out more about the business. But I am satisfied that Norman H. Storey and Lucas P. Bunnell owned the Oyster company.

In the last issue I inadvertently left out a couple of “Bounells,” so I’ve included them this time. Now, this issue really does complete the Bonnell, Bonnel, Bounell, Bonel, Bonell and Bonnelle entries. We still have several states to complete for the Bunnell name and the few Bunnelle entries.

Research Tips

Here's a neat site Steve Bonnell, BNL\_dna@kbsb.com or 1523 Good Shepherd Rd, Montoursville, PA 17754 sent me for Bonnell searchers. It's an index of various Bonnell websites, both in the US and some in the UK. <http://www.linkpendium.com/genealogy/USA/sur/surc-B/surc-Bon/sur-Bonnell/>.

European Research

Well, Bill Austin came through once more. I sent him a copy of a will dated 1590 for a Robert Bonnell of Littleton, Cheshire, Eng. The writing was even more difficult to decipher than the William Bunnell will of 1638. None the less he was able to interpret the majority of the document. Bill writes:

“Littleton [is] right next door to the city of Chester ... It seems not to have had a church of its own. It was part of the parish of Christleton, to which Bonnell left a small bequest.

Several of the places mentioned - Christleton, Trafford, Norley and Northwich are [a short distance East of Chester], also Kelsall, which I suspect is the place spelled Kelsoe in the document. I could not find the Houltts or Warton on my map. There are several Huntingtons in England, but apparently none in Cheshire. The closest one I could find is in Staffordshire, south of the city of Stafford. At 2.4 miles to the inch, it is about 48 miles from Littleton. Could he have been lending money that far away?

I believe that “parson” is the right reading for ‘Mr. William Wright pson of Warton.’ The two-page inventory was more of a challenge. ... I had to use a lot of question marks. Some represent words that I couldn't decipher, but most are words that were meaningless to me, either because I misread the orthography or because the words are outside of my experience. [Using the Shorter Oxford English Dictionary, on] page 3 of the Inventory, “broche” is probably ‘broach’ which had one meaning as ‘a skewer, esp. a roasting spit.’ Brondiron is probably meant for ‘brandiron’, defined as a gridiron or trivet. I don't find ‘Jointe formes’, but joint-stool is defined as obsolete, with a note that it was ‘Freq. mentioned between the 16th and 18th cent. as an article of furniture.’ OED has ‘turnel, a tub, esp. a shallow one.’ A trucklebed is ‘a low bed on truckles or casters, pushed under a larger bed for storage’.

It would be interesting to check the IGI for the names of the other people mentioned. I'm sorry that he didn't name his children. He did name his brother-in-law John Cotgrame, presumably a close relative of Rannulph Cotgrame whom he named as executor with his wife. Was she a Cotgrame?”

Publications

I recently ran across a snippet from a book titled The Georgia Frontier, Vol II: Revolutionary War Families to the Middle 1800s, by Jeannette Holland Austin, copyright 2005. She is quite a prolific writer with well over 100 titles to her name. However the following passage concerned me, as I saw nothing to substantiate her claim. When I wrote to the publishers they forwarded my e-mail, requesting her sources, to the author, but she never responded. Here's the passage that bothered me from page 33.

Bonnell of Virginia;
Burke & Screven Counties

"Anthony Bonall is listed in the Virginia Census of 1624: 'Anthony Bonall, James Bonall and LaGuard, Frenchmen, are dwellers at Elizabeth City, near Hampton. These persons arrived in 1622, in the Abigail, to impart information relative to the raising of silk. Two of them were related to John Bonnell, or Bonall, silk-work raiser to the King ...'

From this venerable person survives the Bonnells who came to Georgia. Anthony Bonnell was born 1741, died in Screven County, Georgia in 1805, his LWT dated 19 November 1804, wherein he named a wife, Mary, and son, William; also a daughter, Elizabeth, and grandson, John. Also mentioned were: Archibald Mills, Henry Bryant, Anthony Bonnell, Jr. and Thomas Lovett. He served as a Ensign in the Georgia 4th Regiment of Burke County, Georgia in 1774; promoted to 2nd Lieutenant of the 1st Company in 1778. He was a Revolutionary War Soldier, having been granted land in Burke County, which later became Screven County. Unfortunately, the Burke County records were burned.”

In those two paragraphs, Ms. Austin leaped 120 years and several generations with no proof and completely omitted connecting generations. While her conjecture is possible, without more detail I would not accept it.

Interestingly, I also received a letter from Joan Murray, joan\_m60067@yahoo.com or 1281 N. Linden Ave, Palatine, IL 60074. She forwarded a couple of pages from The New-England Historical and Genealogical Register, For The Year 1877 which contains the Virginia Census of 1624 quoted above. Joan posed the question that Ms. Austin tries to answer: “I am ... wondering if the southern Bunnell branch is descended from these two Bonalls who arrived in 1622 in Virginia.” It’s a great question and perhaps at some time we’ll be able to answer it definitively.

DNA & Genealogy

Steve reports that: “Surprisingly, nothing new on the DNA side. We were supposed to get results on/about 15 Nov on a test, but that has not arrived ... next due date is 05 Dec. ‘.. This test failed to yield results for your sample. Your sample is being rerun now. Results from this round of testing are expected by this date. ..”

Post Script

Steve Bonnell, our DNA guru recently met with Claude Bunnell, the database guru. Steve sent a photo to share with all.

Well, Pat and I think that next year will be our last as publishers and editors of the Newsletter. We’d really like to see someone else take it over. We will have done this for 7 years and would like to have more time to spend pursuing our specific genealogical interests as well as other interests. I’d like to contribute to the Newsletter if someone else will pick up the editing and publishing responsibilities. I am particularly interested in researching the English connection, or perhaps the European connection. Plus I’ve had little time to pursue either my mother’s lineage or Pat’s family. So, over the next few months I’d like to see someone step up and offer to take it on. I believe it still fills a need for our researchers.

Seasons Greetings from us to each and every one of you.
