COMMENT

In the last Newsletter I remarked about the cooperative nature of our efforts. This time you will see further examples of the contributions of subscribers as well as a little more of the weaving on my part. I can't express strongly enough the value of the bits and pieces that you uncover and send in. I encourage every one of you to participate in this process. Whether or not you are involved in serious research, please keep your eyes open for any references to Bunnells and Bonnells that come your way. Each time you are issued a new telephone directory, I would appreciate a copy of the listings, for example.

Did any of you happen to catch the Texaco broadcast of the Metropolitan Opera on 12 February? The production was Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro." At the last minute the soprano who was scheduled to sing the part of Cherubino was not able to sing, and our JANE BUNNELL was given the role. She gave a very fine performance, and it was a pleasure to hear her again.

Two reunions to be held in June 1994 have come to my attention. Marion Swinden, 149 First St, Walden, NY 12586, writes that they are planning a reunion of the descendants of Daniel Reynolds Bonnell on 26 June 1994. Anyone who wants to come is welcome. Please get in touch with her by phone, (914) 778-1056, or letter for time and place.

Phyllis Brunk, 301 Hill Haven Dr, West Carrollton, OH 45449. phone (513) 859-5248, writes that "Our reunion in June was a big success this year. We had 71 present and 16 were first timer to the reunion. 1994 Reunion will be same time, June 5th at some place." This is the reunion of the descendants of Bert and Lucy Bunnell. Last year's flier said to come at 10:00 a.m. or as soon after as possible. Dinner will be at 1:00 p.m. to give everyone a chance to get there. The place is 50 Springs, oft Route 73 at Caesar's Creek, near Harveysburg, OH.

Although both reunions are held for specific family branches, they have graciously invited other Interested Bunnell and Bonnell descendants to join them. I encourage you to do so. I'd like to see them broaden into regional reunions, perhaps even someday a national reunion!

GAIL STORM, MRS. LEE BONNELL

In the last Newsletter I noted Althea Station's information indicating that Everett Lee Bonnell CB006077 was the Lee Bonnell who married Gail Storm.

Clem Bonnell went right to work and learned that Gail Storm was in fact the stage name of Josephine Cottle. In his latest letter Clem writes,

"I talked to all of Gale Storm's children who were very nice. Her son Peter lives in Juneau, Alaska, told me she probably would want to talk to me. He said she was very down to earth. He suggested that she call me and she did! We weren't home so she left her number on our answering machine. Well, I called her back and she is a delightful person to talk to. She said she would send me a copy of her book. She also said that God had given her two wonderful husbands. She remarried in 1988 to Paul Masterson. She said she never thought she would marry again after Leroy died."

Clem also sent along family records he obtained from Mrs. Thelma (Bonnell) Hinkle, Everett Leroy's sister, and from Paul Bonnell, his son.

The book he mentioned was Gail storm's autobiography, written in 1981. Ms. Storm had had a difficult struggle with alcoholism, and the book was written in part to help others facing the same problem.

When Gwen Quickel learned about the book from Clem Bonnell, she borrowed a copy on interlibrary loan and sent me a brief abstract of the genealogical data from it. Gwen's interest was sparked, you will recall, by the strong resemblance between her husband Edward C. Quickel, Jr., and Lee Bonnell. These two pictures explain her interest:

Gail Storm and Lee Bonnell
a television flashback

Ed Quickel and his daughter
Marita about the same time

Although they were fourth cousins once removed, the relationship between Ed Quickel and Lee Bonnell was somewhat closer than appears at first glance. We find that Jonathan Bonnell, Lee's ancestor, married Ruth Milburn. William Bonnell, Ed's ancestor and Jonathan's brother, married Ann Milburn, Ruth's sister. Thus the next generation had the same number of grandparents they would have had if they had been siblings instead of cousins. Perhaps that helps to explain the resemblance.

Here is what I have learned so far about Everett Leroy (Lee) Bonnell and Josephine (Gail Storm) Cottle:

CB006077. EVERETT LEROY (LEE) BONNELL, son of Lowell Wade, was born 24 (or 27) November 1918 at Royal Center, Cass co, IN. He attended Indiana University. In early 1939 in Indianapolis he took part in and won the "Gateway to Hollywood contest." The same contest was held in other cities, and a 17-year-old girl from Texas, Josephine Cottle, was the other winner. As a result, they were sent to Hollywood, where Lee became "Terry Belmont," and Josephine became "Gail Storm." They were both given bit parts in the movies.

On 28 September 1941, in Houston, Harris co, TX, LEE BONNELL and JOSEPHINE OWAISSA COTTLE were married. She was born 5 April 1922 in Bloomington, Victoria co, TX. Her family moved to Houston when she was two or three years old.

In the early 1940's Terry Belmont acted in a number of films, including, for example. Too Many Girls, with Van Johnson, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz; Parachute Battalion, with Robert Mitchum and Bill Williams; Lady Scarface, with Judith Anderson; and The Navy Comes Through, with Desi Arnaz, Pat O'Brien, Jackie Cooper and George Murphy. His military service during World War II was in the United States Coast Guard.

After the War Lee Bonnell ended his acting career, and in 1950 entered the insurance business, which he pursued successfully for many years.

Josephine, as Gail Storm, on the other hand, continued in the acting profession in a career which embraced not only the movies, but television and the stage as well. She achieved stardom in 1944 in the film Where Are Your Children? On television she starred in two comedy series, Mv Little Margie, and Oh! Susanna, which ran for eight years and 269 performances.

In 1981 Gail wrote the story of her life and her battle to conquer alcoholism in the book I Ain't Down Yet. The same year she and Lee celebrated their 40th Wedding Anniversary.

Lee died 12 May 1986 at Los Angeles, CA. in 1988 Josephine married (second) Paul Masterson.

NATHANIEL BUNNELL/BONNELL

William and Ann (Wilmot) Bunnell had two sons to carry on the family name, Benjamin and Nathaniel. The descendants of both of them used both names over and over again. This has made genealogical research extremely complicated. Lately I have spent a lot of time trying to sort out all the Nathaniels. (The Benjamins will come later.)

It is interesting to note that more than 40 men in this family have been named Nathaniel, but the last one was born in 1853. Since then the name has never appeared again in any record that I have seen.

Genealogically, there are two general problems with these Nathaniels. First, there are many references in the various records which we have been unable to assign definitely to one or other of the known Nathaniels. Sometimes this is because there are several possible Nathaniels, and sometimes because we know of none who could apply.

Second, as I review the material, I find a number of instances where I have to question the identification which has previously been made, in my own work and in that of others. To further complicate matters, of the 41 Nathaniels listed below, fully 15 were themselves sons of Nathaniels. There is even one sequence of five generations of Nathaniels in a single unbroken line.

In the next several issues I will explore some of the problems. Perhaps some of the questions can be answered, and others can be exposed for further study. To begin with, here is a list of the Nathaniels who are believed to be descendants of William Bunnell:

In addition there are two other Nathaniels, whose parentage is known, but for whom the descent from William has not yet been learned;

CB000352. Nathaniel Bunnell, 1775-1830, son of Jonathan CBO 01.6 04, married Eleanor Granger. 4 children.

CB009287. Nathaniel Bonnell, 1849-????, son of Henry CB009285, son of John CB005685, son of the Aaron Bonnell CB002140 who married Ann Brotherton.

We will refer to this list frequently as we pursue the subject in the next several issues.

Taking a look first at the Connecticut branch, descendants of William's son Benjamin, there are two individuals on the list about whom I have questions:

1. In the fourth generation, CB290045 Nathaniel Bunnell 1718-1767, son of Nathaniel CB280011. The only reference I have found for this person is in Claude's Database. He notes a single reference: 1767 Death Record - Age 49, citing the Vital Records of Cheshire, CT-VP-P507. It is difficult for me to believe that this Nathaniel could have reached the age of 49 years without leaving any other record, when you consider the thoroughness of the vital records in Wallingford and Cheshire respecting all the other members of the family of Nathaniel CB280011.

I wonder if this is not a misreading of the year of death in the Cheshire Vital Records. Note that Nathaniel Bunnell CB300063 died in Cheshire in December 17.87 in his 49th year. He was, buried in the old Graveyard in Cheshire, where his gravestone read:

"In Memory of Capt. Nathaniel
Bunnell who died Decbr 29th AD
1787 in the 49th Year of his age."

I suggest that CB290045 Nathaniel is the same person as CB300063, son of Ebenezer, and that CB280011 Nathaniel did not have a son Nathaniel.

2. In the seventh generation, CB320683 Nathaniel Bunnell, 1776-1776, son of Nathaniel CB310121. Claude's Database gives his date of birth as 1776 and his date of death as 26 June 1776 in Farmington,

Hartford co, CT. The Database does not indicate any source for this information. I called Claude and learned that his source was the Barbour File in the Connecticut State Library, reference #LR22, Page 460.

The Database identifies the father Nathaniel as CB310121. However, he would have been just 18 years old in June of 1776. We know that he was married at least twice, but his earliest known children were not born until ten or twelve years after 1776.

In 1961 Mrs. Clarence Bunnell, Winsted, CT, sent me a list of the births in Farmington, CT, "copied from the Barbour Collection of Vital Records found in the State Library, Hartford, Connecticut." On this list we find:

"Nathaniel, s. Nathaniel deed., b. June 26, 1776."

The papers of Ruth Duncan, which she turned over to me after she completed her book, include several pages of Farmington vital Records, Including:

"B(birth) Nathaniel 1776 26 June LR22 p460 Nathaniel, deceased (father)."

Also from Ruth's records, I found the Church Records she copied in the Connecticut State Library Collection. Two items:

"Nathaniel and wife Abigail, their male child b 26 June 1776 -West Avon Cong ch."

"Nathaniel died Oct. 1776 in the Northern Army - Avon Cong ch."

[Note that Avon and Farmington are adjacent towns.-wra]

Again from Ruth's records (a treasure trove), is an item she copied in the Connecticut Probate Records which indicates that in 1778 Abigail Bunnell was appointed guardian of Nathaniel, a minor, age 14. Her list is typed, but in pen Ruth calculated a birth date of 1764. (Somehow this got transmuted to 1769 in her book.) She also noted in pen "or 14 months!" and I believe that is correct.

I submit that CB320683 Nathaniel is the same person as CB310063 in generation 6, son of Nathaniel and Abigail (Abernathy) Bunnell. The Barbour record did not indicate the death of the child in 1776, but rather the birth of a child to a deceased father. The record must have been entered several months after the birth, since the father's death did not occur until October 1776. CB310121 Nathaniel did not have a son Nathaniel.

This review of Nathaniels will be continued in the next issue. In the meantime I would be glad to get comments or suggestions from anyone on this subject.

Harriet S. Ringo, Lexington, KY, submitted this newspaper clipping. There is no date on the clipping and the newspaper is not identified, but London, KY, is on route 175 south of Lexington. The date is apparently sometime in the last year or two.

SUE BENNETT COLLEGE INAUGURATES PRESIDENT

LONDON—Former Urbana University chief Paul G. Bunnell was inaugurated as president of Sue Bennett College yesterday.

Bunnell, 51, a Methodist minister, became the institutions's ninth president. Bunnell succeeds Joan Stivers, 70, who retired this year after 34 years at Sue Bennett as a teacher, dean and, since January 1990, as president.

The London school has an enrollment of 500 students.

Bunnell is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University, the University of Toledo and United Theological Seminary in Dayton. He became president of Sue Bennett earlier this year after serving six years as president of Urbana University in Ohio, about 50 miles west of Columbus.

Bunnell, a father of two, was also a vice president for administration and assistant to the president of Defiance College in Defiance, Ohio, and the pastor of six Ohio churches in 1960-1984.

[Can anyone provide more information on President Bunnell for us? My records give no indication as to where he fits in the family.]

QUERIES

The name and address of the inquirer are included with each query. However, if you are able to provide the inquirer with the information requested, I would appreciate your sending me a copy of your reply.

Jewett Butler asked that this query be repeated:

1. FRANKLIN PIERCE BONNELL CB003935, b. 1852 Clarkson, NY, d. Jan. 1931 Brockport, NY, son of ALLEN BONNELL CB011467 and his first wife (name?). Mother died about 1860 and ALLEN remarried (to whom?). I've been told ALLEN was French and spoke English brokenly. Also, DARIUS BONNELL CB004666 family, Rochester, Monroe co, NY, appeared in 1840 census. Information exchange sought from descendants and genealogists having information on these families. Jewett Bonnell Butler. Lake Ontario South Shore. 7818 Newco Drive. Hamlin. NY 14464.

2. I would like any information about the descendants of EPHRAIM PRICE and JANE BONNELL. She was born about 1680 in Elizabethtown, NJ, the daughter of NATHANIEL and SUSANNAH (WHITEHEAD) BONNELL. I am interested in finding any information about this family between 1700 and 1810, when another EPHRAIM PRICE, one of my ancestors, died in Fayette co, PA. Is he a descendant of EPHRAIM and JANE (BONNELL) PRICE? Bernard Victor Mayhle. N 1517 Regal St. Spokane. WA 99207.

3. JANE BONNELL, born 24 February 1723, died 28 January 1796; married ELEAZER LAMSON, JR., born 17 April 1720, died 24 March 1789. The Lamsons came from Mew Haven, CT, to Newark, NJ. Eleazer and Jane were members of the First Presbyterian church in Rockaway, Morris co, NJ, and were buried in the cemetery there. Their gravestones are still intact. I need all information on Jane Bonnell, especially the names of her parents. Harriet S. Ringo. 1212 Indian Mound Rd. Lexington. KY 40502.

The End
